

Small Blessings by Deborah Ann

*Small blessings....
shower on us every day,
but often to them
we question or downplay.*

*At times we don't notice,
these tiny drops of grace;
they seem so insignificant
for us to truly embrace.*

*If we were to slow down,
we couldn't count them all
for they're immeasurable though they seem so small.*

*When we start to notice
the drops of His wonder, we will begin to recognize God's merciful splendor.*

*Small blessings....
shower on us each day,
for God smiles down on us
as we go about our way!*
